A Celebration of Youth Baseball & Community

“We’re so excited to welcome the nation to Layritz Park,” says Tournament Co-Chair Graham Plumb. “From world-class youth baseball to community events and local food, this is more than a tournament—it’s a celebration of what makes Little League so special.”

The event is also a celebration of Greater Victoria’s community spirit. Local businesses, volunteers, and fans will play a vital role in creating a memorable experience for all involved.

Get Involved

- Volunteers Needed – Over 100 volunteer spots still need to be filled for front end concession operation and parking liaisons.
- Sponsorship Opportunities Still Open – Support youth sport and gain exposure during a national event.
